Education	Employment	Health	Family and Youth	Recreation	Housing	Economic Development	Beautification	Safety	Civic Engagement	Transportation	Arts and Culture A big sculpture (that	Other
Technical School	$15 minimum wage	Access to inexpensive healthy foods and health programs	Non-violence training and peace circle training for all residents	Fitness classes/Groups for adults at parks	Subsidies and loans to repair homes	Stronger business community	"More" attentiveness in the community (pothole, garbage cans, street lights)	Gangs and creating safe passages for kids going to parks and recreation	Cultural events that are designed to entertain the community as a whole	Bench on every bus stop	identifies the Back of the Yard community) in main intersection the commercial corridor along with new	Voice of all be included
Pathway to college for undocumented	Hire people from the Hood to be part of Great Cities Research team	Bigger and better health clinincs	Get a gang free enviroment	Community Center central point to bring residents entertainment, sports,	Abandoned Building, More S.R.O.s, Group home buildings	Thriving Affordable businesses locally owned	Clean Air and Soil	Improve relationship between police and residents	Peace and nonviolence Programs	Speed Bumps or Roundabouts not both	landscaping Arts and culture Community Center	Development Director for funds
Youth Internships for undocumented students	Job Development/Coaching Center	Hospital	More social programs for at risk teens	and a place gather Parks/Schools space available for resident lead activities	Help Homeless Youth	Beautification of industrial areas (and can we improve their Smell?)	Maps at bus stops showing resource locations throughout the community (Warming centers, trama centers, hospitals, etc.) also, use symbols for language barrier and safe passage	Rid the neighborhood of abandon buildings	Bridge the gap between blacks and hispanics and respect each others culture	CTA Accessibility (Train Stop on 47/Hoyne, Benches, Shelters)	Utilize vacant lots on 47th street for a plaza	Legal/social and other resources for undocumented residents
High quality open- enrollment education	Jobs with good wages and benefits	Free Mental Health Centers	Opportunities for youth (Programs)	Year-Round Hoop in the Hood	Affordable Housing	Small Business day to encourge people to shop within the community (47th)	More vegetation, community gardens, parks, trees, less concrete!!!	Police stop the shootings!	Community of Back of the Yards be more involved	Less Speedbumps	Increased public murals and art	A community restorative justice court
"BOTY Promise" college funding for all (dreamers)	Manufacturing/Industri al areas have employers that hire community residents	Reopen Mental Health ClinicsHealth care- based community center with emphasis on primary care and mental health	Collaborate after school programs with community agencies	More rereational places (Theater, movies, galleries etc.)	Mixed-use Senior Housing	Job shadowing (Mentorship)	No Garbage (Give tickets to the people that thow garbage on the floor)	culturally competent police	Working with other neighborhoods	Connect Damen Corridor 47th-Pershing	Cultural Center for Performing/Visual Arts	Local Legal Services (multi-lingual and free or sliding scale especially immigration)
STEM programs in every community and school	A community wide hiring policy of people with a criminal record	All programs must be trauma-informed	Resources (services for Families!	Empty lots into Rereational parks	Multiple affordable senior housing buildings	New Business opportunities	47th Streetscape	Remove violence in the Streets	100% Voter participation and ways for all residents to participate as well	Infrastructure Improvements Sidewalks/Parks/Scho ol	Art increasing art with kids/teens (Murals)	Accountability in putting tax dollars to non-profits
More english spoken to close the communication gap in the community	Community Benefit Agreement forums for new corporate businesses	Accessible Health/mental health care	Free Parenting Classes	Community Gardens	House rehabilitation training, carpenter, plumbing electricity	Adult Job Training	Pot holes on the street and water pumps open during the summer that stay on for up to two days after calling 311	More Security Cameras	Weekly community newspaper in print	Better Trasnspotation to local jobs	More music classes	Better methods of communication (Postive messages)
Equitable funding for schools (statewide)	Thousands of youth work internships especially; summer, youth-at-higher risk interships	Lead-Free Healthy Homes	Computer Learning Classes	Free community gyms that provide boxing and Martial arts to teach people how to deal with anger	More Shelters for the homeless	Bring more job for the young future children or teens so they could participate with everyone	Fix the Streets 45th and Marshfield, Paulina, Hermitage, and Wood	Respect to people	Collaborative online portal/website for community info/new/events		2nd Friday late night (like in Pilsen) businesses are open later galleries are open later showcasing the Back of the Yards	Animal Hospital
More African American and Hispanic kids going to college	Youth job opportunities	Comprehensive Health care Facility	Yourth recreational center (open on weekends?)	Park east of Ashland (47th to 49th)	Community policies that are enforced against absentee landlords	Training for jobs for free Utilizlie Ashland railroad	Do community art and Murals on/inside abandoned buildings	Police on foot	Open House Back of the Yards a big resource fair in the community		Cultural Center in hood with art history focus. Must be led and employ community residents	Accountability
More attendance staff for schools	Education/Training of intrested youth and adults on urban agriculture	Mental Health Services for youth in schools	Increase access to English Literacy in more CBOs	Great Indoor Soccer field	convert abandoned building into housing (low income), art galleries, student living	yard south of pershing road including the central manufactoring district to create more jobs	I would like to see our streets fixed so it is not a bumpy ride	A safe place to live (Where you don't feel threatened or harrassed)	One neighborhood one ward		Community Center (Kids, Families, After School Art Music Sport)	More Resources
School Tutoring	Job Referrals; resources	A Wholistic health and wellness center (Arts counseling)	Improve Organization Collabortion	Sports Leagues (Football, Baseball, Etc.)	Rehabed Houses	See more minority owned businesses	Less vacant homes and buildings	Involve community in police programs to tackle violence and crime	One ward, one alderman		Culturally sensitive Music School	Community access to BOTY High School Ameneties
Supporting Local Schools: sport for H.S., Arts, Literacy	More help for the homeless	Well Run Mental Health Center	Senior Lesure Classes	Community Parks; Skate Park		Increasing an economic development for small business	Fill vacant stores	more police programs in the school for kids and teenagers to defent themselves from violence and crime and way to prevent it	Automatic Voter registration		Pop-up events like movies, free food givewaysbring excitement to people	Community access to front entrance of Library
Dual Language in School, students become bilingual, bileterate	Community programs for expungment of criminal records	Early intervention vs. Drug use	More Youth Services Centers for at risk and high risk youth	Activities including all quadrants of the neighborhood		Bring manufacturing work to industrial zoned areas (Work for Families)	Recycling centers and more education on reycling etiquette (Blue Bins)	Regular patrolman (getting to know beat cops (expand highlight C.A.P.S.)	Leadership Development		Cultural/Arts Center Music (Old meat building- 46th/Marshfield, or 48th/Honore-ComEd Building)	Attention to "South of 47th east of Ashland"
Free community field trip, to museums, botanical gardens, cultural events	"Ban the Box"	Access to health/mental health resources for all residents	Early morning café wiith wifi.	Park district (English)		Tech and Trade Apprenticeships	The railway, why not like a 606/!? In BOY?!?	More police /community bonding events (like at Halloween at the McDonalds!)	Manicipal Permit Access reform		Art Gallery (Youth)	The community is less segregated
Prepare the schools for community challenges; to prevent kids to fall for gangs, emotional education for Kids and working parents		More affordable healthy food options at restaurants	More after school programs	Organized inclusive youth sports		More connections to local jobs	49th St. Tracks Improved	Known as a safe neighborhood	A more equitable way to divide the money from city Alderman's office		Support postive events in BOTY
Teach Organic Ariculture		Better and more eating out options, no more junk/fast food restaurants!!	Tech center for kids	Support existing cultural events		A more diversed community, Econmic Center (Youth Adults)	Clean Community (No Dog Poop)	Police/Family Trust improved	Bilingual leaders with cultural competency
Free Spanish as a second language courses			More sports (for Youth)	A variety of youth programs		Aarron's Furniture site and parking lot on 46th and Marshield (Ashland) could this be used as a possible site for a Back of the Yards Council office or sports stadium	Steet Cleaning: Mice control, Garbage dumsters in bad condition, grarbage collection left behind for the truck, like trees, furniture, etc.	More lighting in the neighborhood	An Alderman that respects the community
Support for GED classes at library			After School Programs to keep kids SAFE	Youth centers (YMCA, Sports, After school Activites, At Risk Centers)		Community driven economic development on 51st street	Water fountains	Safe passage for the community, where the community members can go and come freely to reduce violence	use of tax dollars must be data driven and have an evidence base
After school programs for youth in arts and technology			Big Brother Big Sister Program	More Park Disrict, After school recreation		More shopping options	Sense of ownership (clean, kept/Tended Blocks)	Gather our youth and parents to dialogue listen to our stories together (east of Ashland 47th to 49th)	A new community council
Collaborative sporting events/tourneys amongst neighborhood schools			Equitable funding for youth programming	After-school opportunities exciting to every young person		Investments coming into the neighborhood to increase jobs	Keeping the neighborhood clean	Evident Gun Control Peace: Less violence we	Participatory budgeting with all the Alderman
P.E.C.S. Alternative HS east of Ashland 47th- 49th street			More places open as "warming centers" other than library	services		Better variety of businesses Business center to	Community Garden plots in place of empty lots	want children to feel safe going to the park or playing outside	Better Relations across Boundaries
			"more" community races Kid's café east of	Youth Center (Art/music/sports) Safe Grathering places		teach investing and growing a business More big name	Pick up bottles unsafe for seniors	We need more cameras in bad neighborhoods	Community Drivien Events Lower voter registration
			Ashland (47th-49th Street) Senior Helpers	for youth (Recreational) Niketown		Shopping Commercial presence beyond Dollar/Liquor, Buisness grants in			to 16 Postitive relationships between Government leaders/employee and residents(listen to Youth Talent, opportunties for our youth to showcase their talents	Indoor Sports complex, dog parks!		community			residents) More intentional programming by community organizations across race boundaries and east of Ashland South of
			More after school activities	Additional BotY-specific Festival					Better marketing so everyone knows about community events and services
			Investing in the youth	Plaza					Increased partnerships with community agencies
			More early childhood intervention services to prevent later learning	Indoor Swimming Pool (no bubble) (Sports Center)					Monthly community forums/meetings in different locations problems Youth Center with a youth community group that teaches leadership skills, sports, etc. English and Spanish Classes for Adults and	Park or recreational space between Ashland and Racine, 47th-49th					More opportunites for people to volunteer
			Children in Parks Family Support Groups "more" partent involvement									